

Community and Events Fundraising Volunteer: Role Description

Coram's Fields, a children and young people's charity, has always relied on the dedication and skills of volunteers to help maintain our space for the local community and to deliver our services. With rising costs and a need to generate income to ensure we remain a beloved space and resource for families, it is essential that we are able to raise more money. Our Community and Events Fundraising Volunteer role is a brand-new opportunity for you to be involved with Coram's Fields at an exciting time to help us grow.

Role Summary

Community and Events Fundraising Volunteers will take part in a range of activities and events to raise money for Coram's Fields – some will be planned at the start of the year, while others will arise, sometimes at shorter notice. Activities can include volunteering at one of our community events (e.g. Fireworks Night); helping at corporate fundraising events, collecting donations in the park; and signing people up as regular givers.

Skills and Personal Qualities

- A team player and reliable
- Enthusiastic and enjoys engaging with the public
- Good communication skills

What Coram's Fields can offer

- Experience in organising and taking part in events
- Flexible volunteering
- Travel and out-of-pocket expenses paid
- Work references if required

Time Commitment and Location

Many community and event fundraising volunteer opportunities will arise ad-hoc – this is not a regular, weekly volunteering opportunity. Events may take place during the day, evening or at weekends, so it might suit someone who is working or studying through the week or can't take part in regular volunteering at Coram's Fields. Most volunteering will take place at: Coram's Fields, 93 Guilford Street, London WC1N 1DN, but occasionally this may be off-site.

Next steps – Get in touch if you want to play an important part in preserving Coram's Fields for children and young people. In the first instance, please contact:

Marco Greco, Fundraising Manager, on either 020 3384 2204 or marco@coramsfields.org.uk

Your support in helping us to raise money will make a fundamental difference and change the lives of young people in central London – Thank you!