*Camden Enhanced offer for low income households

Note: Households earning over £100K per annum are not entitled to the extended offer of 30hrs subsidy

The 2 year old offer

This is an offer of 15 hours per week (570 hour per year) for every eligible 2 year old until the child reaches 3 and 4 year old funding eligibility age. The 2 year old offer is for disadvantaged families on low income, SEND, looked after children and National Asylum Support Services (part 6 of the Immigration and Asylum Act)

Statutory universal offer of 15 hours for all 3 & 4 year olds

Free Early Education places for all 3 and 4 year olds, offering 15 hours per week (570 hours a year) until the child reaches compulsory school age (the beginning of the term following their fifth birthday).

Extended offer of 30 hours for some working parents of 3 & 4 year olds

An additional 15 hours of free early education for 3 and 4 year olds, on top of the statutory offer, is available for working parents. It offers up to 1140 hours a year whilst the parents continue to be eligible. Parents will be required to confirm their eligibility with HMRC and re-confirm every 3 months.

The New Enhanced Camden Offer for 3&4 year olds

An additional 15 hours of free early education for 3 & 4 year olds on top of the statutory offer that is targeted at the most disadvantaged children. This is a Camden enhanced scheme and is for Camden resident children who meet the eligibility criteria. It offers 30 hours per week up to 1140 hours per year.
